Creating a Reflective Summary

- All entries must be accompanied by a reflective summary as a separate document. Please include the following things in your summary:
  - Why did you use this medium in this project?
  - What does this piece mean to you? What is its title?
  - How this changed how you view the importance of the MDGs?
  - What message do you want to send to the world through this piece?
  - Will you take action or do anything different because of this?
- Are you ready to submit your artwork submission? Here's Your Checklist:
  - Have you read the rules and regulations?
  - If you are under 18 have you shared these rules and regulations with your parents?
  - If you are under 18 have your parents filled out the "consent to publish form?" You can download this form from the Many Faces of Poverty Website.
  - If you have, you're ready to submit your submission and your reflective summary. Good Luck!
